1. On 15 December 1954, the Hindenburg settlement in Allentsteig (O 49/53) was apparently only lightly occupied. The smokestacks of only three buildings of the settlement emitted smoke. A lieutenant colonel wearing red-bordered black epaulettes and a major wearing red-bordered black epaulettes with artillery insignia were observed at the installation. Motor vehicles observed in the area of Allentsteig included van-like motor vehicle, trucks all with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulettes, a driver wearing red-bordered black epaulettes and a civilian assistant driver; and driving school truck with soldiers wearing red-bordered black and black-bordered red epaulettes. Truck with a driver wearing red-bordered black epaulettes was parked in front of the komandatura. Jeep with a driver wearing black-bordered red epaulettes and occupied by a lieutenant colonel wearing black-bordered red epaulettes arrived at the komandatura. After about thirty minutes, the officer returned to the vehicle which was very dirty and left toward the troop training grounds.
2. According to local residents, an artillery record firing practice was held at the troop training grounds some days ago. The practice involved the troops which were constantly stationed at the training grounds.

Comments: The 344th Gds How Arty Regt of the 96th Gds Mtz Rifle Div is permanently stationed at Camp Kaufholz near Allentsteig.
